

2009 Study Tour

Irrigation Systems and Precision Ag in South East Queensland

ITINERARY

Sunday 16th August 2009

Arrive Qantas check in at 12.15pm

Depart Adelaide at 1.30pm with Qantas and arrive in Sydney at 3.50pm

Depart Sydney at 5.50pm to arrive in Moree at 7.20pm

Upon arrival into Moree make own way to accommodation via bus.

Monday 17th August 2009

Travel to Cubbie Station at Dirranbandi via coach, with lunch provided.

Travel to St George for BBQ on the banks of the river, on the property of guest speaker – Ian Todd (large irrigation and dryland farm and shareholder in Case dealership). Overnight in St George at the Riverland Motor Inn.

For more info visit Cubbie Group website at www.cubbie.com.au

Tuesday 18th August 2009

Tour of Moonrocks which is a short distance from St George.

Lunch in St George

Travel to Coggan family property at Westmar – Home of the World Record attempt to plant the largest paddock of wheat in the world.

Travel to Dalby for overnight stay.

Free evening with dinner at own expense

For more info visit Moonrocks website at www.moonrocks.com.au

Wednesday 19th August 2009

Tour of Simplicity Australia and Daybreak Equipment in Dalby.

Visit local property (accompanied by local agronomist) using minimum soil disturbance weed control, crop rotations and controlled traffic techniques.

Travel to Toowoomba for dinner provided at Local Steak Restaurant with a guest speakers, Michael Burgis from Conservation Farming and Lloyd O'Connell from Australian Grain.

For more info visit www.simplicityaus.com.au and www.daybreak.com.au

Thursday 20th August 2009

Attend University of SE QLD for presentation on Precision Irrigation Application, accompanied by Graham Harris from DPI Qld then visit properties using pivots and lateral movers for irrigation application on the Darling Downs – Crothers at Dalby and Claphams and Brookstead

Travel to accommodation in Brisbane for a free evening with dinner at own expense

Friday 21st August 2009

Free morning prior to transferring to airport for flight departing at 3.40pm and arriving in Adelaide at 6pm.