MacKillop Farm Management Group (MFMG) is pleased to announce the appointment of Lucindale based consultant Sally Klose as their Communications and Events Officer.

Mrs Klose, who will commence the role from 6th December 2021, comes to MFMG with a wide array of experience in business management, customer service, event management and communications. Mrs Klose runs her own business, Sally Klose Strategic Solutions, and works with a wide range of clients on business advice, project and event management, community and stakeholder engagement, governance, and communications. In addition, Sally and her husband Chris also operate a prime lamb and beef business at Lucindale.

Mrs Klose has extensive networks throughout the community, and the wide skillset that she brings to the role will be of enormous benefit to MFMG's members and to the agricultural community in the Limestone Coast.

"I am passionate about and committed to the Limestone Coast and agriculture in the region", Mrs Klose said. "My husband Chris and I are long standing members of MacKillop Farm Management Group, so I'm excited to start this new role and contribute to the Limestone Coast's agriculture industry".

Mrs Klose replaces Megan Skeer in the Communications and Events Officer role, who stepped down in order to spend more time with her young family and to take on a larger role in her family's farming business. Megan Skeer had been the Communications and Events Officer for MFMG for the past two years, and helped steer MFMG through a number of changes with their event management and communications.
